I. INTRODUCTION

GMAC CF hereby submits this Reply to the Plaintiff's Response (the "Withdrawal Response") to Defendant GMAC Commercial Finance LLC's Motion for Withdrawal of the Reference Under 28 U.S.C. §157(d) and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 5011.

GMAC CF has not "create[d] [a] fiction" as to the Trustee's intent to "expend time, effort and funds to prove violations of the Sherman and Clayton Acts." See Withdrawal Response, p. 3. Nor has GMAC CF "inject[ed] a 'red herring' of supposed antitrust issues into the case." See Withdrawal Response, p. 9. Through his own words and actions, Jeoffrey L. Burtch, as chapter 7 trustee (the "Trustee" or "Plaintiff") demonstrates a clear intent to litigate non-core antitrust issues, including alleged violations of the Sherman and Clayton Acts (the "Antitrust Claims") in the context of preference actions pending before the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware ("Bankruptcy Court"), which Antitrust Claims render the entire proceeding subject to both the mandatory and permissive withdrawal provisions of 28 U.S.C. §157(d).

The Trustee's words and actions substantiate GMAC CF's belief that "the Trustee will expend time, effort and funds to prove violations of the [Antitrust Claims]." See Withdrawal Response, p. 3. In fact, as set forth in the Motion of Chapter 7 Trustee to Employ Baker & Hostetler LLP as Special Litigation Counsel to the Trustee Nunc Pro Tunc to June 4, 2007 (the "Motion to Employ"), the Trustee, despite his representation to the Court to the contrary, is already "expending time, effort and funds" for just this purpose.¹ Regardless, the proceedings in which the Trustee will inject the Antitrust Claims are subject to the withdrawal provisions of 28 U.S.C. §157(d).

A. The Adversary Proceedings are Subject to the Mandatory Withdrawal Provisions of 28 U.S.C. §157(d)

The Trustee is inserting the Antitrust Claims into the pending proceedings. The Trustee's reliance on this theory renders the proceedings subject to the mandatory withdrawal provisions of §157(d).

Section 157(d) provides that, "on timely motion of any party", the reference to the bankruptcy court shall be withdrawn if "resolution of the proceeding requires consideration of both Title 11 and other laws of the United States regulating organizations or activities affecting interstate commerce." 28 U.S.C. § 157(d). This statute was interpreted in Matters of Vicars Ins. Agency, Inc., in which the Seventh Circuit provided a detailed review of the state of the law with respect to "several ambiguous phrases" in the statute, including "'resolution,' 'consideration,' and 'affecting'". Matters of Vicars Ins. Agency, Inc., 96 F.3d 949, 953 (7th Cir. 1996). In Vicars, the court agreed with the majority view that consideration of non-title 11 law must be "substantial and material". Id. The court further reviewed other court conclusions as to what constitutes a "substantial and material consideration." The interpretations run the gamut, ranging from the most broad interpretation in which a "proceeding [that] merely 'presents a non-title 11 federal question which will affect the outcome of the proceeding” meets the test, Id. (citing Contemporary Lithographers, Inc. v. Hibbert (In re Contemporary Lithographers), 127 B.R. 122, 127 (M.D.N.C.1991)), to the most restrictive cases, which required that “non-title 11 issues ‘dominate[]’ bankruptcy issues,” Id. (citing In re Lenard, 124 B.R. 101, 102 (D.Colo.1991), or were proceedings that “presented a conflict between statutes, a question of first impression, or a constitutional challenge.” Id. (citing In re Adelphi Institute, 112 B.R. 534, 537 (S.D.N.Y.1990)). The majority of courts require “more than the mere application of well-settled or ‘hornbook’ non-bankruptcy law” or “significant interpretation of the non-[Bankruptcy] Code statute.” Id. (internal citations omitted).

The interpretation of the mandatory withdrawal provision of §157 has led to some disagreement between courts. The minority view requires that the proceeding to involve substantial and material consideration of title 11 law as well as non-title 11 law. In re Am. Freight Sys., 150 B.R. 790, 793 (D.Kan.1993) (internal citations omitted). The majority view diminishes the importance of substantial and material consideration of title 11 issues before mandatory withdrawal “undermines the intent of Congress” by essentially providing that “[a] significant issue of non-[Bankruptcy] Code law, intended for district courts to decide, would not be subject to mandatory withdrawal simply because an accompanying significant issue of [Bankruptcy] Code law, intended for the bankruptcy courts to decide, was not presented.” Id. Particularly relevant to these Adversary Proceedings is the Vicars’ Court observation regarding antitrust complaints.

[I]t would be somewhat anomalous to require withdrawal of a proceeding that contains, say, both title 11 and complex antitrust interpretation issues, but leaves to the bankruptcy court those cases or proceedings that require complex analysis of the antitrust statutes alone.

Vicars, 96 F.3d at 453. Accordingly, the majority view provides that “substantial and material consideration of a title 11 issue is not a prerequisite to mandatory withdrawal.” Id. (internal citations omitted). These cases support Congress’ intent that title 11 issues remain with bankruptcy judges and that “significant issues involved in applying other federal statutory schemes [be] withdrawn to the district courts.” In re Am. Freight Sys., 150 B.R. at 794.

The Trustee cites the Vicars court as requiring a narrow approach in application of the mandatory withdrawal provisions of §157(d). However, upon close inspection of the citation relied upon by the Trustee, 96 F.3d at 953, the Vicars court is merely analyzing existing case law prior to making its decision. See, Withdrawal Response, p. 4. The Vicars court ultimately determined that it “believe[s] the proper approach to mandatory withdrawal analysis lies in the middle of this spectrum.” Vicars, 96 F.3d at 953. Nonetheless, the injection of the Antitrust Claims as rebuttal arguments warrants mandatory withdrawal under any analysis.

The Trustee alleges that any discussions between factors relating to the creditworthiness of clients “may be anti-competitive, and they may be collusive.” See Withdrawal Response, p. 4. The Trustee’s claim that payments made pursuant to allegedly “anti-competitive” or “collusive” behavior cannot have been made in the ordinary course raises a conflict between antitrust law and §547 of the Bankruptcy Code and accordingly will require “more than the mere application of well-settled or ‘hornbook’ non-bankruptcy law” or “significant interpretation of the non-[Bankruptcy] Code statute”. Vicars, 96 F.3d at 953. (internal citations omitted). Such an allegation serves to nullify the statutory defense provided by §547(c) of the Bankruptcy Code and does not impact or otherwise interfere with the substantial benefits of the debtor's reorganization efforts -- these debtors are in liquidation in chapter 7. If antitrust law violations are to become a judicially-created exception to §547 as constructed by Congress, such exception should be the decision of an Article III Court.

Such a determination requires substantial and material consideration of non-title 11 law, namely, the Sherman and Clayton Acts, and will present a substantial and material effect on interstate commerce. 28 U.S.C. §157(d). The Adversary Proceedings, with the introduction of the Antitrust Claims, now contain significant issues of non-Bankruptcy Code law, specifically the Sherman and Clayton Acts. Determination of the Antitrust Claims in the context of these Adversary Proceedings is not only completely novel to the Bankruptcy Court, but also to the factoring industry as a whole. To GMAC CF's knowledge, there has never been an application of antitrust laws to the business methods, practices or policies of the factoring industry, and a determination on the Antitrust Claims will have an impact not only on these Adversary Proceedings, but also on the entire factoring and credit reporting industries and financial reporting sectors. Substantial and material non-bankruptcy issues? Indeed!

All of the statutory requirements for mandatory withdrawal under 28 U.S.C. §157(d) are met. GMAC CF has made a timely motion requesting withdrawal of the reference to the bankruptcy court and the claims for which it seeks withdrawal of the reference "require[] consideration of both title 11 and other laws of the United States regulating organizations or activities affecting interstate commerce", namely the Sherman and Clayton Acts. Mandatory withdrawal is appropriate under 28 U.S.C. §157(d) even if the court elects to follow the most restrictive interpretation of the "significant and material” consideration of non-title 11 law, requiring that the “non-Title 11 issues dominate bankruptcy issues.” That is because a finding in favor of the Trustee on a rebuttal based on the Antitrust Claims will be determinative of the proceeding. As such, mandatory withdrawal pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §157(d) is appropriate. Furthermore, permitting the Antitrust Claims to be litigated, as the Trustee is clearly intending to do through these Adversary Proceedings, is in direct conflict with Congress’ intent that jurisdiction over significant issues of non-Bankruptcy Code law be retained by the district courts. In re Am. Freight Sys., 150 B.R. at 793.

The Antitrust Claims are outside of the jurisdiction of the Bankruptcy Court and, consistent with the intent of Congress, therefore, the Adversary Proceedings should be removed to the District Court. See, In re Am. Freight Sys., 150 B.R. at 793.

B. The Court Should Exercise Its Discretion to Withdraw the Reference Pursuant to the Permissive Withdrawal Provisions of 28 U.S.C. §157(d)

GMAC CF did not use the threat of appeal as its basis for “cause shown” required under the “permissive” withdrawal provisions of §157(d). Rather, GMAC CF submits that withdrawal of the reference will serve to “expedit[e] the bankruptcy process” and “foster[] the economical use of the debtors’ and creditors’ resources” by permitting more efficient adjudication of the entirety of the Adversary Proceedings, including the Antitrust Claims, as it is likely that, given the potentially industry-wide impact resulting from the determination of these issues, appeals are very likely to follow by either party, not only GMAC CF. In re Pruitt, 910 F.2d 1160, 1168. (3d Cir. 1990). Because Bankruptcy Court orders are appealed in the first instance to the District Courts and then to the Circuit Courts, any decisions relating to the Antitrust Claims in the Bankruptcy

Court adds an unnecessary layer of litigation, expense and delay to the final determination of these issues.

An additional consideration, although not a requirement, is whether the claims at issue are core or non-core matters. GMAC CF asserts that the Adversary Proceedings are rendered non-core as a result of the Trustee's rebuttal that the Antitrust Claims negate GMAC CF's ordinary course of business defense. See Motion of GMAC Commercial Finance LLC for Determination that Claims are Non-Core, filed with the Bankruptcy Court on August 15, 2007 and attached hereto as Exhibit A.

If this court determines that mandatory withdrawal is not appropriate, it would be a sound exercise of judicial discretion to withdraw the reference of the Adversary Proceedings.

C. Alternatively, the Court Should Exercise its Discretion to Withdraw the Antitrust Rebuttal Pursuant to the Discretionary Withdrawal Provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 157(d)

Alternatively, if this Court determines that the entirety of the Adversary Proceedings are not appropriate for withdrawal under 28 U.S.C. §157(d), GMAC CF respectfully requests that the portion of the Adversary Proceedings dealing with the Antitrust Claims be withdrawn and heard by the District Court. Section 157(d) provides for the withdrawal of any "part" of a case, for cause shown. 28 U.S.C. §157(d). For the reasons set forth above, cause exists for withdrawal of the Antitrust Claims.

II. CONCLUSION

For all of the foregoing reasons, there is sufficient cause under either the mandatory or discretionary withdrawal provisions of 28 U.S.C. §157(d) to immediately withdraw the reference with respect to the Adversary Proceedings. Alternatively, if this Court determines not to withdraw the reference with respect to the whole of the Adversary Proceedings, cause exists to withdraw the portion of the Adversary Proceedings dealing with the Antitrust Claims. Accordingly, Defendant GMAC CF respectfully submits that the Court should grant its Motion for Withdrawal of the Reference pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §157(d) and Fed. R. Bankr. P. 5011.

I. INTRODUCTION

GMAC Commercial Finance LLC ("GMAC CF") hereby requests that the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware ("Bankruptcy Court") determine that the injection of antitrust issues, including alleged violations of the Sherman and Clayton Acts, into these preference actions by Jeffrey L. Burch as chapter 7 trustee (the "Trustee" or "Plaintiff") as a rebuttal to GMAC CF's ordinary course of business defense, made pursuant to section 547(c)(2) of title 11 of the United States Code (as amended, the "Bankruptcy Code") has turned these previously core proceedings into non-core proceedings.

Concurrently with the filing of the instant motion, GMAC CF has also filed with the Bankruptcy Court a Motion to Withdraw the Reference (the "Withdrawal Motion") in this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §157(d).

II. STAGE OF PROCEEDINGS AND STATEMENT OF FACTS

In or about December, 2005 and January, 2006, the Trustee filed approximately 17 adversary proceedings (each an "Adversary Proceeding" and collectively, the "Adversary Proceedings") against GMAC CF and each of above-captioned co-defendants (collectively, the "Defendants") by filing complaints pursuant to sections 547 and 550 of the Bankruptcy Code in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware ("Bankruptcy Court"). Thereafter, on or about September 19, 2006, GMAC CF filed an Answer together with its Affirmative Defenses in each of the Adversary Proceedings. Among the affirmative defenses raised by GMAC CF was the ordinary course of business defense pursuant to section 547(c)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code.

The Adversary Proceedings have been consolidated for discovery and administrative purposes. Subsequent to the close of discovery in the Adversary Proceedings, and in the course of recent communications with the Trustee's counsel, on August 9, 2007, GMAC CF learned for the first time that the Plaintiff intends to inject antitrust issues into these preference cases by alleging, as part of its rebuttal case, that GMAC CF engaged in anti-competitive actions in violation of antitrust laws, including alleged violations of the Sherman and Clayton Acts. Accordingly, the Trustee intends to litigate issues arising from applicable federal anti-trust laws in each of the Adversary Proceedings.

On August 15, 2007, the Trustee filed two separate motions relating to his intention to litigate antitrust laws, (1) the Trustee's Motion Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105(d) for a Status Conference in Connection with Certain Pending Adversary Proceedings (the "Motion for Conference"); and (2) the Trustee's Motion for Expedited Consideration of Motion Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105(d) for a Status Conference in Connection with Certain Pending Adversary Proceedings ("Motion to Expedite"). See Exhibits "A" and "B" attached hereto and incorporated herein. In fact, the Motion for Conference alleges that actions of the factors, such as GMAC CF, amounted to anti-competitive activities such that payments made during the preference period cannot be categorized as occurring in the "ordinary course of business." See Exhibit A at Para. 5. The Motion for Conference further states that "the Factor Preference Actions have developed into matters far more complex than typical or 'run of the mill' Section 547 proceeding[s]. Information relating to the Trustee's response to the factors' ordinary course of business affirmative defense claims will also relate to potential additional antitrust causes of action to be brought by the Trustee." See Motion to Expedite at Para. 6.

III. ARGUMENT

"Core proceedings" include those involving administration or claims against the estate; proceedings brought to determine, avoid, or recover preferences; liens; and liquidation of assets. See 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A), (B), (C), (F), (K) & (O). "A proceeding is core under §157 if it invokes a substantive right provided by Title 11 or if it is a proceeding that, by its nature, could arise only in the context of a bankruptcy case." Torkelsen v. Maggio (In re Guild and Gallery Plus, Inc.), 72 F.3d 1171, 1178 (3d Cir.1996) (quoting In re Marcus Hook Dev. Park Inc., 943 F.2d 261, 267 (3d Cir.1991)). "If the proceeding does not invoke a substantive right created by the federal bankruptcy law and is one that could exist outside of bankruptcy it is not a core proceeding; it may be related to the bankruptcy because of its potential effect, but under §157(c)(1) it is an 'otherwise related' or non-core proceeding." In re Wood, 825 F.2d 90 (5th Cir. 1987.)

Through discovery recently produced by the Trustee to GMAC CF, a newly-raised rebuttal argument by the Trustee to GMAC CF's 547(c)(2) ordinary course defense, and the Trustee's Motion for Conference and Motion to Expedite, it has become clear that the Trustee intends to present and litigate an antitrust case in each of the Adversary Proceedings, including allegations that GMAC CF allegedly engaged in violations of the Sherman Act (15 U.S.C. § 1) and Clayton Act (15 U.S.C. § 26), both of which are statutes of the United States regulating organizations or activities affecting interstate commerce. While the original claims asserted in the Adversary Proceedings under sections 547 and 550 of the Bankruptcy Code are core proceedings, the Trustee's recent injection of antitrust laws and issues now morphs these ordinary preference actions into non-core proceedings that properly belong before the District Court. Claims for violation of the Sherman Act and Clayton Act does not invoke a substantive right created by bankruptcy. In addition, these claims can (and do) exist outside of bankruptcy because of the implication of other federal laws. Therefore, these cases are no longer core proceedings.

IV. CONCLUSION

Since the Trustee has now injected antitrust issues and antitrust federal laws into these ordinary preference cases in an effort to rebut GMAC CF's section 547(c) ordinary course of business defense, these Adversary Proceedings are no longer core proceedings and GMAC CF respectfully moves this Honorable Court to enter an order pursuant to Del. Bankr. LR 5011-1 determining that the Adversary Proceedings are non-core and granting such other and further relief as the Court deems just and appropriate.

TRUSTEE'S MOTION PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C. §105 (d) FOR A STATUS
CONFERENCE IN CONNECTION WITH CERTAIN PENDING ADVERSARY PROCEEDINGS

Jeffrey L. Burch, Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee" and/or "Plaintiff") for the estate of Factory 2-U Stores, Inc. (the "Debtor" and/or "Factory 2-U"), pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 105 (d), hereby moves this Court to conduct a general status conference regarding the above-captioned adversary proceedings in order to address recent developments affecting these matters and their respective pretrial schedules. Trustee's Counsel has been advised that if the Court is amenable to conducting a 105 (d) status conference, it may occur on August 23, 2007 at 3:30 p.m. The purpose of this Motion, for which the Trustee seeks expedited consideration, is to request the conference and to advise the Court and Defendants of the subjects that the Trustee respectfully requests be addressed. In support thereof, the Trustee states as follows:

1. On January 13, 2004 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq., as amended (the "Bankruptcy Code"), in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Bankruptcy Court").

2. This case converted to an action under Chapter 7 on January 27, 2005.

Jeffrey L. Hurch was appointed as Interim Trustee on January 27, 2005 pursuant to Section 701 of the Bankruptcy Code and is serving as the Trustee of this Estate pursuant to Section 702(d) of the same.

3. Beginning in October 2005, over 800 preference proceedings were filed by the Trustee. Plaintiff requests a status conference for approximately 140 of the still pending actions, all of which involve a "factor" named as at least one of the Defendants (the "Factor Preference Actions").

4. Information has developed that affects the pretrial schedules for the Factor Preference Actions. The factor defendants have consistently produced in discovery little to no communications with the Debtor or co-defendants and other factor defendants. The Trustee has found amidst the approximately 5000 boxes of information placed in storage by the Debtor approximately six boxes that contained computer back-up tapes. The box descriptions did not indicate that computer information was contained therein. The laborious, expensive process of uploading the information and reviewing it continues. The review has yielded many emails containing communications between factors and/or their vendors and Factory 2-U during the relevant time period concerning topics such as payment terms and credit lines. The Trustee respectfully submits that he has the right to obtain such relevant, important information from the factors and their vendors as part of the discovery process in these matters.

5. In addition, documents produced by one of the factors and information learned during a deposition reflect anti-competitive activities undertaken by the factors as a group such that payments during the preference period cannot be categorized as occurring in the "ordinary course of business". The factors discussed subjects such as payment terms, credit lines, surcharges and requests for security such as letters of credit. These group activities exerted pressure on the Debtor in terms of its preference period payments. Further, this information may give rise to additional causes of action to be asserted by the Trustee on behalf of the estate against the factor defendants, such as claims based on violations of antitrust statutes.

6. It is respectfully submitted that the Factor Preference Actions have developed into matters far more complex than typical or "run of the mill" Section 547 proceeding. Information relating to the Trustee's response to the factors' ordinary course of business affirmative defense claims will also relate to potential additional antitrust causes of action to be brought by the Trustee. Accordingly, the Trustee has requested a status conference with the Court in order to provide a forum in which to address these developments and the most appropriate future proceedings in these matters.

TRUSTEE'S MOTION FOR EXPEDITED CONSIDERATION OF MOTION
PURSUANT TO 11 U.S.C. §105 (d) FOR A STATUS CONFERENCE IN CONNECTION WITH CERTAIN PENDING ADVERSARY PROCEEDINGS

Jeffrey L. Burch, Chapter 7 Trustee (the "Trustee" and/or "Plaintiff") for the estate of Factory 2-U Stores, Inc. (the "Debtor" and/or "Factory 2-U"), by and through his counsel, hereby files this Motion for Expedited Consideration of Motion Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §105 (d) for a Status Conference in Connection with Certain Pending Adversary Proceedings (the "Motion to Expedited") and, in support thereof, respectfully represents as follows:

1. On January 13, 2004 (the "Petition Date"), the Debtor filed a voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Code, 11 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq., as amended (the "Bankruptcy Code"), in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Bankruptcy Court").

2. This case converted to an action under Chapter 7 on January 27, 2005. Jeoffrey L. Burch was appointed as Interim Trustee on January 27, 2005 pursuant to Section 701 of the Bankruptcy Code and is serving as the Trustee of this Estate pursuant to Section 702(d) of the same.

3. Beginning in October 2005, over 800 preference proceedings were filed by the Trustee. Plaintiff requests a status conference for approximately 140 of the still pending actions, all of which involve a "factor" named as at least one of the Defendants (the "Factor Preference Actions").

4. Information has developed that affects the mediations and pretrial schedules for the Factor Preference Actions. In addition, the recently discovered information may give rise to additional causes of action to be asserted by the Trustee on behalf of the estate against the factor defendants.

5. The Trustee has requested a status conference with the Court in order to provide a forum in which to address these developments and future proceedings in the Factor Preference Actions.

Relief Requested

6. As a result of the foregoing, in addition the information contained in the Motion Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §105 (d) for a Status Conference in Connection with Certain Pending Adversary Proceedings (the "Motion for Conference"), the Trustee respectfully requests that this Court schedule a hearing to consider subjects outlined in the Motion for Conference for Thursday, August 23, 2007, at 3:30 p.m.

7. The Trustee submits that cause exists for the foregoing expedited request based upon the impact of the recently discovered information on already scheduled mediations and on expired and about to expire discovery deadlines.

8. The Trustee will provide copies of the Motion for Conference and of the Motion to Expedite via telecopy or overnight mail to all parties-in-interest as set forth on the attached Service List.

WHEREFORE, the Trustee respectfully requests that the Court: (i) enter an Order scheduling a hearing on the Motion Pursuant to 11 U.S.C. §105 (d) for a Status Conference in Connection with Certain Pending Adversary Proceedings for Thursday, August 23, 2007 at 3:30 p.m.; and (ii) grant such further relief as is just and proper.

Dated: August 15, 2007
